THE French ship L'Eole yesterday left her moorings in the river Severn, near this city, and proceeded up the Bay.

It is rumoured, says the National Intelligencer, that Mr. Rose still remains on board the Statura frigate in Hampton roads. It is also mentioned that 7 British vessels of war have lately arrived there.

The Wasp, undergoing some repairs, is ordered to Norfolk with all possible dispatch. She is probably destined to carry an embassy to the all controuling Napoleon.

The British Packet for Falmouth, sailed from N. York on Sunday morning, the 27th ult. She was dispatched earlier than usual by the British minister in consequence of the late act of congress laying an embargo.

Letters from the city of Washington have been received in Philadelphia advising an intended removal of congress to that city.

The Washington Federalist of Thursday last states, that Mr. Randolph on that day rose in his place, and read a number of documents, which go to show gen. Wilkinson's intrigues with the Spanish government of Louisiana. One Powers positively declares, that he carried 9,840 dollars up the Ohio for gen. Wilkinson, and that he had it on board when his boat was examined by lieut. Steel, packed in barrels of sugar and coffee.

Mr. Randolph moved the following resolution: Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to cause an inquiry to be instituted into the conduct of brigadier-general James Wilkinson, commander in chief of the armies of the United States, in relation to his having, at any time, while in the service of the United States, corruptly received money from the government of Spain or its agents.

The resolution is not yet disposed of. A motion is pending to refer it to a select committee, with power to send for persons and papers.
